Family Promise of Roane County Newsletter

1

Family Promise of Roane County is excited to announce our new administrative intern, Lexi Marcum. Lexi is a native of Rockwood and will be working with us twenty hours a week for the next twenty-five weeks. Many of you got to meet her at the Kentucky Derby event on May 4th. We look forward to having her these next two seasons.

Welcome to Family Promise of Roane County, Lexi!

2

Alyssa Cook will be a summer intern with us at our day center in Rockwood. She comes to us from The University of Tennessee at Knoxville's College of Social Work. A native of Chicago, Alyssa has Tennessee roots, being the granddaughter of Bucky and Sandy Kerr, great-granddaughter of Reede and Helen Kerr. She will work with our program this summer as a social work generalist, helping our guests find available resources and services.

Family Promise of Roane County would like to introduce you to Tabitha Renee Lawson, our new Family Coach. Tabitha is a native of Roane County and grew up at two of our host churches, Redeemer Lutheran and Bethel Presbyterian. She is a mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and granddaughter and looks forward to using her experience as a family member to help coach families in our program. She comes to us with twenty-four years of experience.

Tabitha comes to FPRC with 24 Years as a Coach!
